Schools, along with families and the community, are key to students successfully navigating healthy relationships in an ever changing society and the drastic shifts that have taken place in teaching and learning. During this online inservice, Social and Emotional Learning (SEL) will be emphasized as the heart of ensuring that each student feels safe in their environment and has the interpersonal skills to collaborate with peers and adults.

Participants will gain knowledge and skills in:

1. communicating the need for Social Emotional Learning,
2. planning for change at the local district,
3. identifying specific actions that will support students.

This inservice is online from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
