This in person inservice will engage participants in an overview of common pitfalls that can interfere with successful case management. Effective communication strategies, how to consider parent provided evaluations, what actual monitoring of student progress entails, how to approach decisions regarding change in placement, whether school or parent initiated, and the over communicative parent will be discussed.

The CST training series inservice #1 is on October 20, 2021 and the CST training series inservice #3 is on December 15, 2021. Please see those inservice dates for details.

It is strongly recommended that participants attend all three inservices in the CST training series; however, participants may attend each individually.

This inservice is in person from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
