Part two of the online inservice for paraprofessionals will focus on a continuation of developing and implementing teaching strategies, compensatory strategies, and behavior management techniques.

Participants will gain knowledge and skills in:

1. principles of applied behavior analysis,
2. applying basic behavior principles in the classroom.

Note: It is strongly suggested that participants attend both inservices in the paraprofessional series; however, participants may attend each inservice individually. Training for Paraprofessionals – Part One is being offered online November 11, 2021. Please see inservice descriptions for details. Another Training for Paraprofessionals is also being offered on-site on March 7, 2022.

This inservice is online from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
