This online workshop will provide participants with an understanding of key legal requirements that are in place to ensure that all districts take proactive steps to recognize, reduce and respond to implicit biases and ensure that students and other stakeholders are treated fairly at all times.

The impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on disciplining students with disabilities, including codes of conduct and means of imposing consequences and sanctions, will also be addressed.

Participants will gain knowledge and skills in:

1. legal responsibilities of school districts with respect to identifying and addressing significant disproportionality;
2. possible causes of significant disproportionality, including implicit bias;
3. ways to look for, and address, significant disproportionality in identification and eligibility of students, placement decisions, and discipline of students with disabilities.

This online inservice is being held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.
(A one hour lunch break is included.)
