Subject: Developmental Learning Center New Providence Special Education Monitoring Report

Dear Dr. Fike:

I write to inform you of the results of the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Special Education Policy and Dispute Resolution (SPDR) onsite monitoring of the Developmental Learning Center New Providence. Monitoring activities were conducted with the goal of improving educational results and functional outcomes for all children with disabilities.

The monitoring activities focused on Student Achievement and Regulatory Compliance. The Student Achievement and Regulatory Compliance component of the monitoring activities were centered on state and federal requirements related to:

- Curriculum Development and Refinement;
- Instruction and Student Engagement;
- Assessment and Data-Driven Decision Making;
- Professional Development;
- Individualized Education Programs; and
- Operations, Programs and Services.

Monitoring activities consisted of file review, classroom observation, interviews with school administration, child study team members, teachers, related service providers and support staff and a review of student level data.

The Developmental Learning Center New Providence demonstrated compliance with the student achievement and regulatory compliance requirements reviewed. The Developmental Learning Center New Providence must maintain a system of oversight to ensure continued compliance with federal and state special education regulations.

Please contact Ariadis Charles by email at Ariadis.rivera-charles.doe.nj.gov should you have any questions.

The Department appreciates the cooperation of staff members during the monitoring process.

Sincerely,

Dominic Rota, Director
Office of Special Education Policy and Dispute Resolution
