

This event is not sponsored or endorsed by or under the auspices of the Morris-Union Jointure Board of Education.

The County will be in multiple towns in the coming weeks to assist residents who were affected by Hurricane Ida. Assistance and case workers will be available to help residents in Cranford on Friday, September 10th and Rahway on Tuesday, September 14th. Attendance to both events is free and open to all county residents who need assistance regardless of town of residence.

Currently, events are scheduled as follows:

- Friday, September 10, 10:00 a.m – 2:00 p.m. – Cranford – Cranford Community Center, 220 Walnut Avenue
- Tuesday, September 14, 3:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. – Rahway – Rahway Community Center, 3 City Hall Plaza

Services and information that will be available to residents at the pop-up locations will include assistance with:

- Processing property damage or loss claims
- Replacing missing documents or identification
- Access to temporary housing
- Food assistance
- Stress Counseling

Union County Office of Emergency Management staff will have access to FEMA resources on site. Residents who need transportation within Union County to attend the pop-up events can schedule a ride with Union County Paratransit Services by calling 908-241-8300. Attendees will also be able to get COVID-19 Vaccinations (Pfizer and Johnson & Johnson) as well as COVID-19 testing at all Disaster Relief Resource Events.

Upcoming events will be announced as they are scheduled on the County website, ucnj.org and on County social media for the Disaster Relief initiative.